Welcome

Welcome to the WPSA's 2023 Annual Meeting. On behalf of San Francisco State University, we are delighted to welcome you to San Francisco and the broader Bay Area. Here you will find world class cuisine, gourmet restaurants, historical gems, plenty of museums and quick access to local gorgeous redwood forests. A walk down the Embarcadero takes you from Fisherman's Wharf to the AT&T stadium, all while viewing the San Francisco Bay. There's plenty to do, from ferries to street cars to biking, for adventures of any stripe. Museums abound, either nearby in Yerba Buena Gardens, or farther out in the Golden Gate Park (easily accessible via the MUNI trains and buses). Meanwhile, art installations on the Willie Brown Bridge light up the evening walks and people watching on the Embarcadero. The new MUNI line to Chinatown/Rose Pak station gets you to and from some of our best eateries, as well as nearby North Beach/Little Italy. Jump on a ferry to cross the bay to Sausalito or Oakland and explore the interconnected cities of the Bay. However you decide to take in the region, you're bound for adventure. Enjoy!

Special Acknowledgments

Welcome to San Francisco and the 76th Annual 2023 WPSA Conference where we emerge ignited by last year's 75th anniversary of the association. As the program chair this year, I would like to extend my thanks to all of our members, volunteers, and staff for making our meeting in San Francisco a success. I chose our meeting theme "Unity in the Midst of Disunity: The Role of Political Science in Democracy" in order to draw attention to the fact that in democracies, citizens will disagree about policies, but at the same time, we should not lose sight of the fact that more unites us than divides us. Building on the enormously successful conference last year in Portland, Oregon, celebrating our 75th anniversary, we return to the city by the bay, San Francisco, to celebrate another year together in person with more participation as we recover from the effects of the pandemic. I could not have put together this program without the support and hard work by the 28 section program chairs, and organizers for the mini conferences and preconference workshops. We also welcomed Julio Castilleja this year as our beloved longtime associate director Elsa Favila retired after her many years of indispensable service to our association. I would just like to extend my appreciation and thanks to all of you who have helped make this conference possible!

As we have returned to a more "normal" conference experience with in person participation, we are delighted to offer nearly 263 panels in the meeting program. We have fortunately returned to a number of panels in our program approximating our pre-COVID experience. As we have done in the past, we continue this year with four pre-conference workshops on Asian Pacific American politics, undemocratic politics, feminist theory, and community colleges. Under the program chair's sections, we have highlighted multiple panels which elaborate on the conference theme and represent just a small sampling of our impressive lineup of panels. We also have a special panel hosted by the Russell Sage Foundation on professional development.

This year we have two special events: one to honor Elsa Favila for her many years of service to the association and another to recognize and give thanks to the editors from Purdue University for their years of service making Politics, Groups and Identities emerge as a leading journal in our discipline. Join me in thanking Elsa for her years of service to the association, and to the Purdue editors for their hard work and dedication.

We would like to thank our local arrangement chair Marcela Garcia-Castanon, and her colleague, Anthony Pahnke, from San Francisco State University, for providing help in organizing the conference and putting together an excellent guide of the area with suggestions for dining and entertainment.

Special Acknowledgments

We also want to say thank you to the Department of Political Science at San Francisco State University for its generous support. Lastly, we want to thank the universities and individual departments who helped supply volunteers for the conference: Menlo College, the Political Science Department at San Jose State University, and the myriad of programs at SFSU (International Relations, Public Administration, Criminal Justice, and Political Science).

I'd like to also acknowledge and applaud President Pei-te Lien, who went above and beyond to make sure our conference is as inviting and accessible to as many members as possible. I would also like to offer my special thanks to Executive Director Richard Clucas, who as executive director, helped me immeasurably make sure that everything goes smoothly. Lucy Phulps, Jason Phulps, and Chao Vang have worked hard behind the scenes to help the association and to make sure our conference proceeds without a hitch.

Don't miss our two keynote addresses at WPSA 2023. APSA President Lisa Martin will address our association on Thursday, April 6 at noon and California Assemblymember Evan Low will speak Friday, April 7 at noon. Martin is a professor of political science at the University of Wisconsin Madison, and was elected APSA president this past year. She will discuss her priorities as the new APSA president. Low is a trailblazer who was elected the youngest Asian American mayor of Campbell, California in 2009 and has served in the California Legislature since 2014. He has been active in the LGBTQ caucus and Asian American Pacific Islander Legislative Caucus. Please join us for these important and interesting presentations.

It has been a pleasure serving as the program chair for the 2023 conference, and I thank all of you who have generously volunteered your talent, time, and treasure to the association. We appreciate you and look forward to continuing the tradition of the Western being the "one professional conference you REALLY want to attend!"

Anti-Harassment Policy

1. Purpose

The Western Political Science Association was created for the purposes of promoting the study and teaching of government and politics, to foster research, and to facilitate the discussion of public affairs. The Association promotes these purposes in the spirit of free inquiry and free expression. The primary event in which WPSA members gather at the Association's annual conference. Harassment of colleagues, students, or other participants at the conference, or at any other WPSA-sponsored event or forum, undermines the principle of equity at the heart of the Association's principles and is inconsistent with the principles of free inquiry and free expression. Consequently, harassment is considered by the WPSA to be a serious form of professional misconduct.

The WPSA is committed to providing a safe and welcoming conference environment for all participants, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, ability, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, age, or religion.

"Participant" in this policy refers to anyone present at or directly involved in WPSA meetings, including staff, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, venue staff, WPSA members, and all other attendees.

2. Expected Behavior

All participants at WPSA meetings are expected to abide by this Anti-Harassment Policy in all meeting venues including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings.

- Abide by the norms of professional respect that are necessary to promote the conditions for free academic interchange;
- If you witness potential harm to a conference participant, be proactive in helping to mitigate or avoid that harm;
- Alert conference or security personnel if you see a situation in which someone might be in imminent physical danger.

3. Unacceptable Behavior

Unacceptable behaviors include:

- persistent and unwelcome solicitation of emotional or physical intimacy; accompanied by real or implied threat of professional harm;
- intimidating, harassing, abusive, derogatory, or demeaning speech or actions by any participant in an WPSA meeting and/or at any related event;
- prejudicial actions or comments related to race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, ability, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, age, or religion that coerce others, foment broad hostility, or otherwise undermine professional equity or the principles of free academic exchange;
- deliberate intimidation, stalking or following;
- harassing photography or recording;
- sustained disruption of talks or other events;
- physical assault (including unwelcome touch or groping);
- real or implied threat of physical harm.

Annual Awards and Submission Deadlines

At the 2024 Annual Meeting, the Association anticipates the following fourteen awards provided through the WPSA, the Political Research Quarterly, and the Politics Groups and Identities journals:

Don T. Nakanishi Award for Distinguished Scholarship and Service in Asian Pacific American Politics: This annual award will recognize outstanding scholarship or service advancing the understanding or practice of Asian Pacific American politics. The recipient will be someone who has made a significant contribution to the understanding of Asian Pacific American politics (scholarship that examines more than one ethnoracial group is also eligible), or whose professional work has made a substantial contribution to the practice of Asian Pacific American politics.

The Asian Pacific Americans and Politics Best Paper Award for the best paper on Asian Pacific Americans presented at the 2022 WPSA meeting. ($250 award)

The Betty Nesvold Women and Politics Award: For the best paper on women and politics presented at the previous Annual Meeting of the WPSA. ($250 award)

The Betty Moulds Lifetime Service Award. This award was created to honor the contribution made by Betty Moulds to the WPSA. Moulds had an extraordinary impact on the association during her 25 years as its chief administrator. The Association would not enjoy the success that it has today without the efforts she made during all her years of service. The award is given to an individual who has made a long history of service and an extraordinary contribution to the WPSA.

The Award by Committee on the Status of Blacks for an outstanding paper discussing issues and problems that concern most Black Americans. ($250 award)

Clay Morgan Award for Best Book in Environmental Political Theory: The purpose of this award is to recognize outstanding scholarship, published in a book-length monograph, which utilizes the resources, literatures, and approaches of the field of political theory to address intersections between contemporary or historical environmental challenges on the one hand and the philosophical and ideological concepts, principles, and debates animating political life on the other. While the focus of the award is on political theory, we welcome books that make a contribution to the field from related disciplines – including, but not limited to, anthropology, environmental humanities, ethnic studies, geography, indigenous studies, philosophy, political economy, science and technology studies, or sociology.

Annual Awards and Submission Deadlines

Charles Redd Award for Best Paper on the Politics of the American West: an award offered jointly by the WPSA and the Charles Redd Center for Western Studies of Brigham Young University for the best paper on the politics of the American West presented at the previous Convention of the WPSA. Papers may cover a broad range of topics--governance, policy, culture, politics--and may compare the West to other regions. ($250 award)

William E. Connolly Award: This annual award is for the best political theory paper in contemporary democratic thought, whether recognizing daring and innovative work by a young scholar or a bold new line of inquiry by an established scholar. It is named after William E. Connolly, world renowned political theorist, revered teacher and mentor, and long-time WPSA member. ($250 award)

Dissertation Award: For the best doctoral dissertation completed at a university within the regional groupings of the WPSA between July 1 and June 30 of the previous academic year. ($250 award)

WPSA Best Paper in Environmental Political Theory Award: for the best paper in environmental political theory presented at the annual WPSA meeting. ($250 award).

WPSA Best Paper Award on Latina/Latino Politics:For an outstanding paper on Latina/Latino politics and its relative aspects. ($250 award)

WPSA Best Paper Award: For the best paper presented at the previous WPSA annual meeting. ($500 award)

The Politics, Groups, and Identities Best Article Award. This award is given for the best article published by the PGI during the prior calendar year. ($500 award)

The Political Research Quarterly Best Article Award. This award is given for the best article published by the PRQ during the prior calendar year. ($1000 award)

2023 WPSA Award Recipients

WPSA AWARDS TO BE ANNOUNCED AT THE 2023 ANNUAL MEETING

The 2023 awards will be presented at the Joint Awards Reception on Thursday, April 6. The reception is scheduled to be held in Waterfront A/B of the Hyatt Hotel from 6 to 8 pm

BETTY MOULDS LIFETIME SERVICE AWARD

The Betty Moulds Lifetime Achievement Award was created in 2015-16 to honor the remarkable contributions of the longtime Executive Director of WPSA, Betty Moulds. This year the members of the Betty Moulds Lifetime Achievement Award Selection Committee are delighted to announce that this year's recipient is

Jane Bayes

WPSA President, 1996-97

Director, Institute of Gender, Globalization and Democracy
Political Science Professor, Emeritus
California State University, Northridge

The Betty Moulds Lifetime Service Award is given to individuals who have made a long history of service and an extraordinary contribution to the WPSA. In making its decision, the Awards Committee recognized Jane's extensive work on behalf of the Association, which included serving as program chair and president. But the committee's discussion focused preeminently on her contributions in making the WPSA a home for what was originally known as the Women's Caucus, but is now the Caucus for Women and Gender Justice. Jane's early and sustained leadership has benefited generations of students and scholars while improving the character and raising the quality of our Association. Jane completed her Ph.D. at UCLA in 1967 and was then hired to teach at CSU Northridge, where she taught for 50 years. She has written or edited eight books.

Please join the Betty Moulds Lifetime Achievement Award Selection Committee and the Association in congratulating this outstanding, remarkable, generous WPSA leader.

Call for Papers - 2024 Annual Meeting

2024 Conference Theme: Political Backlash and Its Consequences

Political scientists alongside an interdisciplinary group of scholars from across the globe will convene in Vancouver, BC for the 2024 Annual Meeting of the Western Political Science Association. We gather to appraise the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic and the recovery efforts domestically and globally, especially considering the relentless attacks and backlash against minorities of all kinds in the post-Covid era. These developments exacerbated already serious “pre-existing conditions” and racial/ethnic inequities related to disparities in health, income, education, housing, and other economic and social vulnerabilities. The global pandemic, coupled with resolute international, national, and local organizing for racial and social justice, further exposed the persistence of racism, nativism, xenophobia, and discrimination. Recent global protests, including those in Canada, often centered Black-led multicultural groups, in solidarity against state violence. In response, public, private, and nonprofit institutions (including colleges/Universities) sought to address demands with a series of diversity, equity and inclusion types of programs and initiatives— which are now experiencing intense backlash at the national, state, and local levels.

The WPSA continues its long tradition of fostering innovation, diversity, and inclusiveness. We are excited to convene scholars from various types of institutions to explore political problems from multiple perspectives, including historical, analytical, quantitative, qualitative, interpretive, normative, and other empirical points of view. As political scientists and, more generally, social scientists, we are in a unique position to examine the root causes, contours, and consequences of political backlash. We are also well positioned to examine the role political scientists play (individually and collectively), in the face of political backlash. We invite panels and paper proposals that broadly assess the various formations of backlash and how it affects different parts of society, culture, and politics, and what long-term consequences will be for organizations, institutions, and identities. What are some examples of how political backlash was constructed and impacted our political discourse? How do we understand the role of political backlash on our academic institutions, hiring practices, promotion and tenure, teaching and learning pedagogy, as well as avenues to secure resources for our research? One of the features of the conference will be to foster dialogue between political science and interdisciplinary fields of study on issues of race, ethnicity, indigeneity, gender, sexuality, religion, immigration, multiculturalism, equity, diversity, social justice, and related topics.

Elsa Favila Travel Award

A Reception and an Endowment Honoring Elsa Favila

Elsa Favila retired from the Western Political Science Association on October 1, 2022. It was a great run. Beginning in 1984, when she was the secretary for the Government Department at California State University Sacramento, Elsa has worked tirelessly to ensure the WPSA's success, organizing our annual conference, handling a myriad of administrative responsibilities, and answering a constant stream of email questions and concerns. Above all else, she was passionate about helping WPSA members. I am sure you can think of times she has helped you.

In recognition of Elsa's long dedication to the WPSA and its members, the WPSA Executive Council has decided to honor Elsa in two ways. First, the association will be saluting Elsa at the main reception—a CELEBRATION!—on Friday evening during our annual conference. It is a chance for all of us to express our thanks to her in person. The reception will be held on April 7 from 6 to 9 pm in the Waterfront C/D/E rooms of the Hyatt Regency. These rooms are on the atrium level of the hotel. Please attend.

In addition, the Executive Council has decided to name our newly created travel award after her. The award will now be known as the Elsa Favila Travel Award. The award was created so that the Association can help underwrite the cost for graduate students and less well-off faculty to attend the annual meeting. It is a good cause. Elsa was so member-oriented that the council believes this is a particularly appropriate way to honor her.

It is our goal to have the award officially up and running for the 2024 conference. However, we need your support to do so. The award is being paid for entirely by donations. I encourage you to donate to this good cause. Donations to the Elsa Favila Travel Award Endowment can be made on a one-time only basis or spread out over multiple months or years. The WPSA is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization; as such, your contributions are fully tax-deductible, as permitted by law. To make a donation, please visit the WPSA website at: <https://www.wpsanet.org/forms/donation.php>.

Meetings and Events Schedule

Labor Walking Tour in San Francisco
April 7th, 2023; 2-4pm

Waterfront Walking Tour - Take a tour of San Francisco's labor past and present. We'll visit the site of a bomb explosion leading to the frame-up of early 20th century labor leaders, the last public murals painted under the New Deal, one of the only downtown buildings left standing after the 1906 Earthquake, the union hall of longshore workers during the 1934 San Francisco General Strike, and more. This tour underscores the city's changing landscape, helping us to remember the waterfront was once a gritty working port before it became the current tourist destination and home to trendy shops and upscale restaurants.

Catherine Powell of the Labor Archives and Research Center at San Francisco State University, will lead the tour exploring the district's deep vein of labor history.

Saturday, April 8th 9am-12pm. The committee welcomes in person and hybrid attendance. The theme is "Rebuilding Democratic Institutions in the Age of Contestation". The theme for this conference is intended to address the current state of America. In recent years, America has undergone tremendous tumult including erosion of long-standing democratic institutions, systems of justice, and American political saliency have been contested. What is the danger of these things going away? How can we center justice? How does this decrease engagement of students of color?

ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICAL THEORY WORKSHOP

Wednesday, April 5, 2022 - 9:00am - 5:00pm Pacific Standard Time

Location: Waterfront B

CO-ORGANIZERS

Stephanie Erev, University of Copenhagen and Anatoli Ignatov, Appalachian State University

FOCUS

The 2023 WPSA Environmental Political Theory (EPT) workshop gathers together an interdisciplinary group of environmental political theory scholars. We convene a one-day workshop to talk about our research, pedagogies, and the intersections between our academic work and the unfolding experiences of climate change around the planet. The workshop this year includes a keynote talk by William E. Connolly entitled “Amitav Ghosh and the Time of Climate Wreckages,” a roundtable on the recently published Palgrave Handbook of Environmental Politics and Theory, and conversations with Bay Area activists about contemporary environmental and justice issues. We welcome anyone interested in these lively conversations. Independent scholars and graduate students are welcome.

TIMEFRAME

The in-person session is scheduled to begin at 9:00am PST and end at 5:00pm PST with a few coffee breaks and a lunch break. We are also organizing a dinner together at 6:30pm. Please contact the organizers if you are interested in joining for dinner.

Pre-Conference Workshops

INTERPRETIVE METHODS WORKSHOP

Wednesday, April 5 - 12:00PM-3:00PM (PST)

Location: Waterfront A

CHAIRS:

Sarah Marusek, University of Hawaii Hilo, marusek@hawaii.edu

Farah Godrej, University of California, Riverside, godrej@ucr.edu

TOPIC:

The 2023 WPSA Interpretation and Method pre-conference workshop on Wednesday, April 5, from 12-3 pm, will showcase recent books that use one or more interpretive research methods in an explicitly interpretive methodological approach to its empirical topic. In a kind of "speed dating" fashion, each author will have 7 minutes to introduce their book topic and discuss its interpretive dimensions. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions of the authors and discuss more general methodological questions once books have been presented. Come join us to learn more about new books in interpretive political science!

Grant-seeking from Private Foundations: What Investigators Should Know

Date : Friday, April 07, 08:00AM - 09:45AM

Location : Waterfront E

Chair : Wilson, James , james@rsage.org, Russell Sage Foundation

About: Participants will gain a better understanding of the process of applying for research funding – including what the application process entails and opportunities available for scholars at different career stages. Panelists will also overview the tools needed for writing grant proposals and the processes for developing ideas for funding, budgeting, and compliance, as well as identify resources that specify what to include in research proposals. A key focus will be on tips for good grant-writing – the specifics of what often makes for a good grant proposal and the mistakes that grant-seekers should avoid in drafting a grant proposal or letter of inquiry. Participants will gain a better understanding of how the review process unfolds and how to think about grant-writing in light of that process – and perhaps most importantly, they will come away with generalizable advice for preparing successful grant applications.

Location :                Board Room B

Chair(s) :                Behl, Natasha, Arizona State University

                                Steele, Brent, University of Utah

About :

The Methods Café will involve five scholars discussing their particular method in an informal environment. Participants can locate the method that they wish to discuss with the person staffing that table, sit down, and join in an ongoing conversation or start a new one. The café has no formal paper presentations; or designated discussants, but rather it is a conversation among people interested in learning about interpretive methods in a supportive environment.

Research Ethics and the IRB System - Peregrine Schwartz-Shea, University of Utah

I've been studying this system since 2006 and served on the APSA ad hoc committee that produced the 2020 APSA Principles and Guidance for Human Subjects Research ethical guidelines. I'm happy to discuss everything from nuts and bolts of IRBs, to how to engage with IRBs (including resistance), to actual ethical issues in the social-political sciences.

Autoethnographic Methods - Natasha Behl, Arizona State University

In my research, I turn to autoethnography to give voice to my experience of gendered, racialized, and epistemic violence in political science and in the field. Autoethnography enables me to ask questions that remain unasked: Why do we so often adopt an objective and cold academic voice? What if we spoke and wrote differently? Please join the critical reflection on autoethnography and its capacity to challenge the content, style, and form of academic writing.

Visual Research - Sarah Marusek, University of Hawai'i Hilo

Visual research is an interpretive methodology that sees beyond the visual aspects of everyday life to consider a praxis-based approach to theoretical constructs. In other words, how we see what we see (or don't see) can be deconstructed, analyzed, and re-envisioned beyond just the visually apparent. These aesthetics of representation include dimensions of materiality, spatiality, semiotics, and even the synesthetic.

Ethnography, Positionality and Reflexivity – 'Who are We?' - Farah Godrej, University of California Riverside

Join us for an open-ended conversation on how the researcher's own personal or ascriptive characteristics, whether race, gender, sexuality, religion, class or other life-histories and experiences can shape their engagement with the communities they study, and the outcomes of their research. How is the researcher being read, perceived or received by and within the community they immerse in, and in what ways do their own personal characteristics and histories end up shaping what they in turn perceive, understand and analyze? What responsibilities might this imply for researchers to reflect self consciously upon, rather than ignore or sidestep, the interactive and mutually constitutive relationship between their own demographic/biographic "data" and the worlds they study?

Interviewing - Samantha Majic, John Jay College, CUNY

I have conducted interview-based research since 2006 in the US context and look forward to talking with participants at the methods cafe about the following: organizing and planning related projects; IRB applications; interviewee recruitment strategies; question development; interview techniques; what to do with interview data (organization, analysis, etc); publishing interview based research; other!

Dining Guide-WPSA 2023

Welcome to the City by the Bay! Famous for a diverse array of ethnic, fusion, and just plain amazing culinary delights, San Francisco and surrounding Bay Area has a bit of flavor for every occasion. In the Embarcadero Center, around the corner from the conference hotel the Hyatt Regency, are any number of local favorites: Osha, Boudin, Philz Coffee, and on! Leaving the hotel guarantees a culinary adventure.

Meander over to the embarcadero waterfront, and start at the Ferry Building. 101 Embarcadero is a 2 minute walk away, and offers flavors from across the Bay Area. Cowgirl Creamery Artisan Cheese Shop, Gott's Roadside, Acme Bread, Slanted Door (Vietnamese), and any number of coffee/wine/cheese/chocolate shops.

The Hyatt Regency also has a standing concierge that can assist groups with recommendations for dining, tours and activities in and around San Francisco. They sell tickets for Big Bus Tours, Bay cruises, Muir Woods National Park, various museums and attractions. They also have Wine Country tours, and Alcatraz Island package tours. They can also recommend various shows for theater, music and comedy venues. The concierge team is available daily, 10am-6pm, for assistance, and their chief concierge is Nadine Hewko who is aware of the WPSA conference and happy to help.

We genuinely could not do justice to the dining options that abound, so we instead suggest several food oriented blogs, apps, and tech friendly tools focused on local San Francisco cuisine to help you cater to your tastes (and wallet). Additionally, the concierge desk has provided a curated list of nearby (within 15 minute walk) of the hotel. [attach pdf here].

Most helpful tech for the hungry academic on the hunt for local eats:

- Yelp and Google maps provide pricing and directions/mapping, as well as menus for multiple locations.
- Eater SF provides specialty maps if you're looking for the "Best Beer Halls" or "Top 10 places for Tropical Drinks" in SF.
- OpenTable (app) provides quick and easy reservations at multiple (but not all) locations across the city.
- FunCheapSF.com provides events, often food oriented, that are easy on the wallet and more of the local vibe.

Local Attractions, Parking and Transportation

Within walking distance of the hotel:

The Exploratorium

Transportation:

Getting to San Francisco

Flying into San Francisco International Airport (SFO)

Updated listings for their vendors are available on the airport website: <https://www.flysfo.com/>

BART

BART rapid rail is a fast and inexpensive way to get from SFO to San Francisco. After picking up your luggage, look for signs for AirTrain, the free tram service. Take either the Red or Blue AirTrain line to the Garage G and BART stop in the International Terminal. Hop on the BART train going towards Pittsburg/Baypoint, signified by the yellow line on the BART map.

BART costs are associated with how far you travel; the greater the distance, the higher the fare. A round-trip BART fare from SFO to downtown San Francisco is $20 ($10 one-way). Buy your ticket and pass through the gates by tapping your Clipper card (purchased at the ticket kiosks in each station). You will have to scan your ticket again when you arrive at your destination. Don't worry if you run out of funds when you exit. You can always add more inside the station. You can also load a Clipper card onto your phone (Apple or Android), and this is strongly encouraged by BART to help curb plastic waste and provide more secure transit options. See their website for information on preloading a transit card into your digital wallet here: <https://www.bart.gov/tickets>

SFO trains arrive and depart three to four times per hour until 11:50 p.m. daily. The ride to downtown San Francisco takes about 30 minutes. All BART services resume at 4 a.m. on weekdays, 6 a.m. on Saturdays, and 8 a.m. on Sundays.

Ride-Sharing Apps

With app-based transportation services, including Lyft, you can arrange to ride with drivers using their personal, non-commercial vehicles via smartphone. These services pick up passengers at the designated pickup spots at all terminals. Fares and travel times vary according to demand and traffic, but it typically takes 30 minutes and costs $30-40 to get from SFO to popular San Francisco neighborhoods like Union Square (near the conference hotel).

Shared Van & Shuttle Service

Several privately-owned, shared-ride vans provide service between SFO and passenger-specified locations. The one-way rate from SFO to the city center is approximately $20. Depending on the number of passengers, shared ride vans may make multiple stops, so the travel time can vary from 35-90 minutes. In the Domestic Terminals, shuttles pick up passengers curbside on the Arrivals Level terminal. In the International Terminal, passenger pick-up is on the Arrivals Level roadway center island.

Taxis & Limousines

SFO is served by a number of taxi and limousine companies. Taxis depart from roadway islands on the lower level outside the Arrivals/Baggage Claims area in all terminals. Uniformed taxi coordinators work from 7 a.m. until 1 a.m. to ensure a smooth process for travelers. All cabs are metered. The travel time to popular drop-off points in downtown San Francisco is usually around 30 minutes (depending on traffic) and fares range from $45-60.

For a limousine, arrange service in advance with your company of choice or upon arrival via the Lodging, Transportation and Attraction Boards, which provide free phone connections to participating limousine operators. These boards are located on the Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level of all terminals. Contact the service provider for pricing and availability.

SamTrans Buses

The San Mateo County Transit Agency (SamTrans) runs public buses between SFO and downtown San Francisco's Transbay Center on the KX, 292, 397 and 398 lines for $2-$5 one-way for adults. Find SamTrans bus stops in the following locations at each terminal:

- Terminal 2: Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level, center island adjacent to Courtyard 2.
- Terminal 3: Arrivals/Baggage Claim Level, curbside adjacent to Courtyard 4.
- International Terminal: Level 1 at Courtyard A and curbside adjacent to Courtyard G.

Flying into Oakland International Airport (OAK)

Updated listings for their vendors are available on the airport website:

<https://www.oaklandairport.com/>

BART

Taking BART from OAK is an easy and low-cost option to get to San Francisco. After you've picked up your luggage, look for BART signs in the baggage claim. The station is located across from the Terminal 1 baggage claim area and a short walk from Terminal 2. Board a train for the quick eight-minute ride from OAK to the BART Coliseum station, where you can transfer to the BART train bound for your final destination in San Francisco.

OAK trains depart every 5 minutes from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. Service is less frequent at other times. Round trip BART fares from OAK to San Francisco ($22.80), downtown Oakland ($9-15) or other East Bay cities are less than half the cost of taxis or shuttles to the same destination. For more information on taking BART from SFO, see How to Get to San Francisco from Oakland.

Ride-Sharing Apps

Smartphone app-based transportation services like Lyft serve OAK, providing rides via drivers in their personal, non-commercial vehicles. Arrange your ride via the app, and then follow the signs for Smartphone App Rides in Terminals 1 and 2. Drivers wait for passengers on the second curb of the pickup area. Fares and travel times vary according to demand and local traffic, but a typical ride from OAK to SFO takes approximately 45 minutes and ranges in price from $30-45.

Shuttle, Taxi and Limo Service

Prices vary for shuttles, taxis and limousines from OAK to San Francisco. There are multiple options and special prices for traveling groups. You can call or make your reservation online.

Flying into San Jose Airport (SJC)

Updated listings for their vendors are available on the airport website:

<https://www.flysanjose.com/>.

Caltrain

Caltrain provides commuter rail service along the San Francisco Peninsula. To get from the San Jose Airport to the Santa Clara Caltrain Station, take the Airport Flyer-VTA Route #10 bus. The Airport Flyer makes a continuous loop between the Metro Light Rail Station, the Santa Clara Caltrain Station and the Airport Terminals. A new shuttle departs each designated stopping point approximately every 15-30 minutes from 5 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. One-way fare is $3.

Caltrain fares are based on the number of zones that are partially or wholly traveled through by the passenger. There are two Caltrain stops in San Francisco: 22nd Street and Fourth Street. Both are in Zone 1. Allow a minimum of 60 minutes to arrive in San Francisco. Occasionally, the trip might take longer.

Shuttles

Prices vary for shuttle service from SJC. There are also multiple options and special prices for traveling groups. You can call or make your reservation online.

Arriving by Train

Amtrak offers a comfortable and enjoyable way to get to San Francisco. The city is served via Thruway bus connections at Emeryville. Ride with the convenience of amenities and picturesque scenery right outside your window as you explore what the Bay Area has to offer.

- From the North, take the Coast Starlight from Seattle and Portland, or the Capitol Corridor from Sacramento.
- From the South, the Coast Starlight travels daily from Los Angeles, and the San Joaquin offers departures from Bakersfield and Fresno.
- From the East, the California Zephyr travels from Chicago and Denver daily.

Getting Around San Francisco

Muni

Muni is San Francisco's bus and metro system that runs throughout the city, operating buses, trains, cable cars and the F-line heritage streetcar. Muni buses remain above ground and on streets while Muni Metro runs on rails and sometimes go underground. Bus stops come in many forms: small bus shelters, yellow paint on street poles, and white paint on streets. Metro stops can be found on an island in the middle of the street and in underground stations. Using the Metro Map, find the nearest Metro to your location. Find more information on how to use Muni and Muni Metro.

For all Muni routes and times, you can call 511. There are also many smartphone apps, including the 511 SF Bay Transit Trip Planner app, that provides maps, routes and times.

Cable Cars and Street Cars

Cable cars and street cars are San Francisco's historic public transit cars. Cable cars are located downtown and run on three lines: Powell-Hyde, Powell-Mason, and California Street. The F-Line streetcar runs up and down Market Street all the way to Fisherman's Wharf. Pay the conductor onboard or purchase tickets in advance at multiple locations or via smartphone using the MuniMobile app. Exact change is your only option when you are onboard the vehicles.

Ride Sharing

There are a few on-demand car services to choose from, most of them started by San Francisco locals. To use them, you must first download the app, register, and set up a credit card payment system. Uber and Lyft both offer options to request a private car service as well as shared car options for a discounted rate, such as Lyft Line and uberPOOL. To use these services, set a pick-up location and destination in the app. Within minutes, you will be matched with a driver. Make sure to communicate with your driver; call, text, or wave down their car and always confirm that you are getting in the correct vehicle. Get more ride sharing tips.

Taxi

As is customary in most U.S. cities, visitors may hail a taxi directly or use a smartphone app like FlyWheel.

San Francisco Visitor Passport & CityPASS

If you are staying for more than one day, Visitor Passports and CityPASS are useful because they provide unlimited rides on Muni, Muni Metro, historic streetcars and cable cars. There are multiple locations throughout the city where you may purchase tickets and day passes, including the San Francisco Travel Visitor Information Center, where the VIC staff and volunteers curate the San Francisco experience, providing one-on-one interaction with visitors from around the world. Find the VIC at the Powell and Market cable car turnaround at 900 Market St.

Clipper Card

The Clipper Card is an easy way to use the various modes of public transportation throughout San Francisco. Purchasing this pre-loaded card gives you access to BART, Muni buses, Muni Metro, and cable cars. When you board, hold the card over a scanner and listen for the beep to make sure that you have an adequate balance on your card for your fare. Be warned: fines are steep and Muni personnel check frequently for fare evasion. Cards can be bought at multiple locations and refilled at Muni/BART stations, as well as loaded onto Apple and Android wallet apps.

MuniMobile

The new MUNI bus app that lets you see routes and pay your fare. Fares are also offered at a discount on the app, versus paying while boarding (cash).

Transportation Costs

For reference, here are typical prices for various transportation options around the city as of July 2017

- BART from SFO to SF downtown: round-trip $20, one way $10.
- BART from OAK to SF downtown: round-trip $22.80, one way $11.40.
- Single Ride Muni Bus/Train: $3.00 ($2.50 with a Clipper Card or the Muni Mobile App).
- Single Ride Cable Car Ticket: $8.
- Ride sharing (like Uber and Lyft) is typically under $20 for most trips around the city.
- Taxis are typically under $25 for most trips around the city.
