WELCOME AND SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Welcome to Albuquerque

Welcome to the Land of Enchantment! Here you will find a big and beautiful sky, gorgeous sunsets, and the majesty of the Sandia Mountains. You also will discover a unique variety of people and cultures, as well as a range of dining and recreation options. Located downtown, the convention hotel is only a short cab ride from historic Old Town, and the trendy Nob Hill neighborhood, where you will find both superb restaurant options, as well as plenty of local culture.

If you are looking for art, history and culture, the National Hispanic Cultural Center and the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center also are located nearby.

Santa Fe, America's oldest capital city, is located about an hour's drive north of Albuquerque, and is well worth visiting, especially for art lovers.

If you do nothing else while you are here, remember to look up and out. The natural beauty never fails to satisfy.

Tim Krebs
Local Arrangements Chair

Special Acknowledgements

The program for the 2006 Western Political Science Association annual conference is the result of the efforts of many people. First, I want to thank the 29 individuals who served as section chairs and whose names are listed after their respective sections in the Schedule of Panels. Their diligent efforts in organizing good panels and roundtables will insure the satisfaction of those of us who come to the Western primarily for the opportunity of intellectual exchange.

The local arrangements chair plays a singularly important role in the time-consuming work associated with organizing a successful conference. Tim Krebs assumed this responsibility on somewhat short notice (after the first local chair relocated to South Carolina) and has done a fine job. Additionally, I want to acknowledge his university – The University of New Mexico-- as our host school and thank them for the financial support and transportation assistance they have provided to our meeting.

Three institutions also provided much needed financial support for our 35-Year Anniversary Celebration of Latinos in the WPSA: the University of New Mexico; the College of Santa Fe; and the Northern Arizona University. Our sincere thanks are extended to Interim Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs Reed Dasenbrock and the Political Science Department Chair Mark Peceny of the University of New Mexico, President Mark Lombardi at the College of Santa Fe and President John Haeger at Northern Arizona University.

I would be remiss if I did not thank WPSA President Ron Schmidt, Sr. , and members of WPSA committees, especially committee chairs, as well as the WPSA Executive Council for their cooperation and assistance which greatly facilitated the conference planning process. Finally, a former WPSA program chair, Barbara Norrander, said it best when she stated in her acknowledgements that “nothing would be accomplished” without the help and encouragement of Betty Moulds, WPSA Executive Director, and Elsa Favila, WPSA Associate Director. I hope that when you see Betty or Elsa that you will take a moment to stop and thank them personally for all the good work they do for our association.

Valerie Martinez Ebers
Program Chair

CALL FOR PAPERS – 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

WESTERN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

March 8 – 10, 2007
La Riviera Hotel – Las Vegas, Nevada

The Western Political Science Association will host its 2007 annual meeting at the Hyatt Regency in Las Vegas, Nevada from March 8 to 10, 2007. Please make plans to attend and encourage others to join us!

In May, the association will distribute a call for papers. The DEADLINE for submission of paper proposals/program participation forms will be September 11, 2006.

If you are interested in shaping the content of the program by serving as a section chair, please immediately contact:

The Theme for the 2007 Meeting:

“Politics and Luck: Thinking about Government and the State in an Uncertain World”

Aristotle theorized about luck (Physics II.4), Machiavelli believed fortuna to be the fundamental problem of political life, and Pascal touted perhaps the most famous bet of all time. But it may be that ours is truly the Age of Uncertainty – at least as measured by an apparently unceasing preoccupation with the vicissitudes of pure chance. Hoping against hope, Einstein insisted that God doesn't play dice with the universe. Heisenberg argued for the fundamental indeterminacy of matter at the most basic level. Today, physicists propose that much of what happens in the physical world is literally chaotic. Meanwhile, ethicists wrestle with the vexing problem of moral luck and managers pursue the art of risk management, while psychologists contemplate the apparent randomness of ordinary decision-making. And indeed, much, perhaps most, mainstream political science relies heavily on either probability theory or the theory of games. Increasingly, our world seems to us not so much a temple or an arena or a stage but a kind of casino; and we're led thereby to contemplate, among other things, the wisdom of that great American philosopher Fred Astaire, who insisted, in The Gay Divorcee, that "chance is the fool's name for fate."

CALL FOR PAPERS – 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

How should we do serious social science when the forces of luck, chance, and sheer contingency – the roll of the dice – seem so pervasive? What are the implications, if any, for the design of responsible institutions of government and the formulation of effective public policy? And how should we understand the putative cultural consequences of a world that seems to us so unpredictable and haphazard: conspicuous consumption operating cheek-by-jowl with desperate poverty; a zealous evangelical awakening thriving side-by-side with the wholesale commodification of human relations; a conception of human flourishing that seems increasingly to rely on some version of winning the lottery?

As we prepare to gather in Vegas, I especially invite papers and panels that consider what the ideology of contingency and risk, chance and fate, uncertainty and luck, might mean – and should mean – for the practice of political science.

Annual Awards and Awards Committees

At the 2006 Annual Meeting, the Association anticipates the following seven awards:

The $250 Dissertation Award for the best doctoral dissertation completed at a university within the regional groupings of the WPSA between July 1, 2005, and June 30, 2006.

The $250 Pi Sigma Alpha Award for the best paper presented at the 2006 WPSA meeting.

The $250 Betty Nesvold Women and Politics Award for the best paper on women and politics presented at the 2006 WPSA meeting.

The $250 WPSA Best Paper Award on Latino/Latina Politics for an outstanding paper on Latino and/or Latina politics.

The $250 Award by Committee on the Status of Blacks for an outstanding paper discussing issues and problems that concern most Black Americans.

The $1,000 Political Research Quarterly Best Article Award for the best article published in the Political Research Quarterly during 2006.

The $250 Charles Redd Award for Best Paper on the Politics of the American West for the best paper on the politics of the American West presented at the 2006 Annual Meeting. Papers may cover a broad range of topics—governance, policy, culture, politics—and may compare the West to other regions. The Charles Redd Center for Western Studies at Brigham Young University and the WPSA jointly offer this award.

GUIDE TO ALBUQUERQUE AND ITS RESTAURANTS

Main Attractions In Albuquerque

1) Sandia Peak Tramway

10 Tramway Loop Northeast, Albuquerque, Tel: 505-856-7325

The world's longest aerial tram ride takes visitors 2.7 miles to the 10,000-foot peak of the Sandia Mountains. Deer, coyotes, black bear, raccoons, bobcats, eagles and hawks inhabit Sandia Mountains and can be spotted from the cable cars above. For more information, see <http://www.sandiapeak.com>
