WELCOME AND SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Welcome

Welcome to WPSA's 2008 Annual Meeting in "America's Finest City" – San Diego, California. As native Californians, and long-time and life-time San Diego residents, we hope you enjoy your visit. Although San Diego is known best for its Mediterranean climate and 70 miles of beaches, we hope to introduce you to other aspects of this vibrant city.

The San Diego area is one of the most rapidly growing in the country. Bordered by Mexico, the Pacific Ocean, the Anza-Borrego Desert and the Laguna Mountains, the region faces unique challenges of rapid urbanization which lead to conflicts over economic growth, environmental protection, and ethnic and racial diversity. The 2008 conference program is aptly linked to the location with the theme – "Citizenship, Community and Conflict."

Over twenty-five colleges and universities in the greater San Diego region provide multiple forums for scholarship, programming, and community development about the challenges the area faces. As academics living and working in the area, we find it to be an intellectually, culturally, and socially exciting place to be! Visitors, as well as residents, can take advantage of a wide variety of activities from nightlife, outdoor recreation, to cultural events every day of the year.

The Manchester Hyatt is located a short distance from all of these activities. The hotel is a short walk away from the historic Gaslamp Quarter and Little Italy; a short boat ride away from Coronado Island and the Del Mar Hotel; a short bike or rickshaw ride around the harbor; a short trolley ride to Mexico (don't forget your passport or driver's license and proof of citizenship); and a short cab ride to zoos, museums and theatres.

We both recommend highly a trip to Balboa Park where you will find the world-famous San Diego Zoo, the Old Globe Theatre, and a variety of museums. We also recommend a beach-walk, a whale watching trip, or kayaking if the weather is nice. Both of us will be available to give you directions, outdoor advice, or restaurant tips at any point. Our personal restaurant guide, with notes on eateries in three neighborhoods near the hotel, is available on the WPSA website and at the registration table.

As co-local arrangement chairs, we hope you will enjoy the 2008 Annual Meeting and all that San Diego and the region has to offer!

WELCOME AND SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Special Acknowledgements

A spirit of cooperation graced the composition and organization of the 2008 Western Political Association Meeting. The heart and soul of the program are the section chairs, all of whom we list in the program. Working with these outstanding scholars and organization members was the most pleasant professional experience of my career. I am extremely proud of the panels and roundtables we planned for your intellectual exchange, expansion, and enjoyment.

Noelle Norton of the University of San Diego and Barbara Morris of the University of the Redlands were the local arrangements co-chairs. They have done an extraordinary job of making an idyllic location even more idyllic. Their universities generously contributed to our WPSA reception. The Interuniversity Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) also contributed to the Minority Scholars' reception and the Graduate Students' reception.

The former president, Peter Steinberger of Reed College gave me much needed advice and suggestions to help me complete this assignment. I also want to thank Edward Simpson Puckett, B.F.A., for this arresting cover design. Finally, and most profoundly, I thank Elizabeth Moulds, the WPSA Executive Director, and Elsa Favila, the WPSA Associate Director, for their constant support, assistance, and kindness.

CALL FOR PAPERS – 2009 ANNUAL MEETING

WESTERN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION 2009 ANNUAL MEETING March 18 – 20, 2009 Vancouver, BC, Canada

The Western Political Science Association will host its 2009 annual meeting at the Hyatt Regency Vancouver, BC Canada from March 18 to 20, 2009. Please make plans to attend and encourage others to join us!

In May, the association will distribute a call for papers. The DEADLINE for submission of paper proposals/program participation forms will be September 19, 2008.

If you are interested in shaping the content of the program by serving as a section chair, please contact (or remind if you have already done so):

Shaun Bowler
Department of Political Science
UC Riverside
Riverside, CA 92521
shaun.bowler@ucr.edu

The Theme for the 2009 Meeting: Ideas, Interests and Institutions

The study of politics involves the study of ideas, interests and institutions. The theme of “Ideas, Interests and Institutions” may be interpreted in a variety of ways and is meant to accommodate the broad range of scholarly interests and overall inclusiveness of our association. In this conference we would like to pay attention to the interaction between these three different elements of politics.

We invite panel proposals that incorporate the conference theme and encourage all authors to keep the theme in mind as they develop their papers/presentations. It is hoped that one of the features of the conference will be dialogue between scholars working within different areas of the discipline. For example, do political theorists and empirical scholars share common ground when considering political action, agency and expression? What defines and delimits that common ground? How may empirical theories of democracy and representation be informed by newer normative work in those areas? What implications does recent work on diversity and minority politics have for our understanding of established institutions of representation?

While the conference is unlikely to see such questions answered, it is hoped that it will see these questions raised and discussed and that the conference will see the current interest in inter-disciplinary thought accompanied by intra-disciplinary and cross-field discussion.

This conference marks the first meeting by WPSA outside the U.S. In addition to the many possibilities for tourism and sight seeing offered by Vancouver itself, the conference site opens possibilities for greater international collaboration and dialogue in scholarship on common themes and issues.

Please remember that U.S. Passports are now required for travel by US citizens to Canada.

Note: All participants in the program are required to preregister for the meeting by early December.

GUIDE TO SAN DIEGO RESTAURANTS

SAN DIEGO RESTAURANT GUIDE

Barbara Morris and Noelle Norton, local arrangement co-chairs, have recommended several of their favorite restaurants from the San Diego area on the following pages. The neighborhoods they have highlighted – Gaslamp/Downtown, Little Italy, and Hillcrest – are all a close walk or cab ride to the hotel. To provide details about the restaurants on the list, they used the Zagat's San Diego guide and highlighted each eatery with personal commentary. The list is constructed alphabetically and by neighborhood, however, the type of food is included by the title.

The key to reading their personal notes and recommendations follow: Noelle's favorite restaurants are titled with italics; Barbara's favorite restaurants are titled in bold; when Noelle and Barbara both love a restaurant it is titled in both bold and italics! A "She Said/She Said" commentary is noted below the best establishments. Enjoy eating in San Diego!!

GASLAMP AREA/DOWNTOWN AREA

Anthology, Californian

1337 India St. (A St.) 619-595-0300 www.anthologysd.com
Barbara: Hot New Restaurant in San Diego- the 'in' place to be...
